BUDGET

HOUSE REPUBLICANS

REP. JASON SMITH, REPUBLICAN LEADER

When asked to defend a massive spending agenda, President Biden said:

"What would they have me cut? What would they have me leave out?"

We are glad you asked, Mr. President.

Artistic Ice Cream

New York City is spending $25 million from the supposedly COVID-focused American Rescue Plan on "arts projects" – including handing out $5,000 grants to thousands of artists:

"Among the grantees...is the creator of a giant banana sculpture touring Gotham neighborhoods; a street dancer; an evening of 'Bodega Raps' in Soho; and an artist 'activating' toy Plushies for kids around the city."

There's also the "Ice Cream Truck of Rights" that hands out free ice cream to folks while teaching them about their "housing, immigration, labor, and voting rights."

Sounds like a sweet deal for some, but it's a raw deal for the American taxpayer. But hey, at least President Biden knows where to go for his next ice cream stop.

Stay tuned for more.
